Growing Together Since 1982!

Join us in celebration of local organic farming, gardening, landscaping and sustainable lifestyles!

This year's keynote speaker will be international bestselling author Jeffrey M. Smith, the leading spokesperson on the health dangers of Genetically Modified Organisms (GMOs).

Attendees will be able to choose from over forty workshops for the gardener, cook, farmer and land care professional. Lunch will be the ever popular CT NOFA Potluck, overseen by nationally known Chef John Turenne.

Local famers/vendors and exhibitors will focus on organic foods, gardening for biodiversity, sustainable organic farming and lifestyles.
